

World Ocean Day in times of corona – Quiz

1. Small-scale fishing fleets around the globe have been in lockdown

Yes

No

2. Some industrial fishing fleets have used the lack of surveillance during the corona pandemic to plunder other country's resources

Yes

No

3. What are the effects of the pandemic on fish resources?

(a) Fish are at risk of being infected

(b) Fish resources recover due to reduced fishing

(c) None

4. Demand for maritime transport is increasing again with reopening factories in Asia, Europe and elsewhere. What are the challenges?

(a) Empty containers are in Europe, but needed in Asia

(b) Social distancing can not be ensured on merchant ships

(c) Obligations by the International Maritime Organization for using sulphur-free fuel for climate mitigation are resisted by the shipping industry

5. Passenger cruise ships are swimming covid-19 hotspots, or are they? Where is the infection risk highest?

(a) In a crowd on the open deck of a cruise liner

(b) At home, meeting friends and family for long talks and extended meals

(c) Singing and rehearsing for hours in a choir

(d) Jogging in groups in the forest

- Send your answers to wod2020@mundusmaris.org and expect a nice surprise

Name:

E-mail:

Mundus maris – Sciences and Arts for Sustainability – see more at www.mundusmaris.org

Participate in the World Ocean Day collaboration to produce a Book of the Marine World
<https://www.mundusmaris.org/index.php/en/projects/projects-2020/2374-book-en>